United States District Court

WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense) is the would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed, that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. §3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. a rifering to which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or the power of the p			Case Number:
1	requ	In a	ccordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C.§3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.
offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C.§3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in			Part I - Findings of Fact an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in		(1)	offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 (2)			a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C.§3156(a)(4).
a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C.§3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1). Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternate Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C.§924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction situ separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The fendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defenses counsel. On ord of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility s			an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
U.S.C. §3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. 33			an offense for which the maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternate Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C.$924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebuted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The fiendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United state and states.			a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C.§3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
3 A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1). 4 Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternate Findings (A) 5 There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. §924(c). 7 The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. 1 There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. 2 There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Altorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal frendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United attes marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.		(2)
assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternate Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C.$924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction litility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The endant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United teles marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.		(3)	A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for Alternate Findings (A) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C.§924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention hat the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction lity separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The andant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United state:		(4)	assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in	\neg		Alternate Findings (A)
under 18 U.S.C.§924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The fendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United State marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.	Ш	(1)
2
reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternate Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction illity separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The endant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United State marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.	\neg	(0)
There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction lility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The endant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United test marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.		(2)	reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The fendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United states marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.		(1)
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The refendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United states marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.	\vdash
Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction citility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The efendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United states marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The efendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United tates marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. Dated:			Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction acility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The efendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United tates marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. Dated:	that	the c	redible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction cility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The efendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United State on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United tates marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding. Dated:
Dated:			Part III - Directions Regarding Detention
	The cility after the cility of	e defe separ ant sh eques marsh	endant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections ate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The all be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States to fan attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United hal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
	Dated	۱۰
	Daiel	. —

*Insert as applicable: (a) Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §801 et seq.); (b) Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §951 et seq.); or (c) Section 1 of Act of Sept. 15, 1980 (21 U.S.C. §955a).

Name and Title of Judicial Officer

Alternate Findings (B) - (continued)
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention - (continued)

United States v.

Page 2.

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL